

Acknowledgements

The Pack has been developed, designed and produced by Jill Rogers Associates Limited, Cambridge for the Solihull NHS Care Trust.

The materials have been prepared by:

Karen Bateson, Clinical Psychologist

Cheryl Burbidge, Clinical Psychologist

Jill Delaney, CAMHS Worker (Parenting)

Hazel Douglas, Child Clinical Psychologist and Child Psychotherapist

Diana Fallowes, Child Psychotherapist

Rebecca Johnson, Child Psychologist

Helena Lake, Health Visitor

Louise Lucas, Health Visitor

Helen Maunders, Clinical Psychologist

Sue Meade, Child Psychotherapist

Mary Rheeston, Solihull Approach Facilitator/Health Visitor

Lynda Ross, Health Visitor

Jeanette Scott, Child Psychotherapist

Debbie Sutherland, Health Visitor

Helen Young, Clinical Psychologist

Thank you to the health visitors in Solihull NHS Care Trust who contributed to the project through the training events.

A special 'Thank you' to Dilys Daws for both her inspiration and support when preparing the original Solihull Approach Resource Pack.

Permissions

Solihull NHS Care Trust are grateful to those publishers who have given permission to reproduce material in this learning resource. We have made every effort to identify and contact copyright owners. The publisher would be pleased to hear from anyone whose rights unwittingly have been infringed.

Community Practitioner, published by Ten Alps Publishing on behalf of Unite/CPHVA, for text from: Douglas, H., Ginty, M. (2001) The Solihull Approach: changes in health visiting practice, Community Practitioner, 74, 6, 222-224.

Department of Health for the section: A continuum for public health practice in health visiting in DH (2001) Health Visitor Practice Development Resource Pack. London: DH.

Nash Pollock Publishing for text from: Winkley, L. (1999) Neural pathways and the development of the brain, Primary Practice, 20, 30-35.

Perseus Books Group for text from: Stern, D. (1985) The Interpersonal World of the Infant. New York: Basic Books.

Perseus Books Group for text from: Stern, D. (1990) Diary of a Baby. New York: Basic Books.

Taylor and Francis for text from: Reid, S. (1990) The importance of beauty in the psychoanalytic experience. Journal of Child Psychotherapy; 16, 29-52.

YoungMinds for text from: Balbernie, R. (1999) Infant mental health, YoungMinds Magazine, 39, 17-18.

Solihull Approach Trainers' Pack

Contents

Guidance for trainers	1
Sample programme	11
SLIDE 1: Cover of the Solihull Approach Resource Pack
Day 1
Session 1 Introduction	1.1
Activity: Participants introduce themselves	1.4
SLIDE 1: Cover of the Solihull Approach Resource Pack
Session 2 How the Solihull Approach started	2.1
SLIDE 2: Child Psychotherapy Trust quote
SLIDE 3: How the Solihull Approach developed
SLIDE 4: The Solihull Approach: Containment, reciprocity, behaviour management
Session 3 Infant mental health	3.1
Activity: DVD of 'Brave New World' from the 'Baby It's You' DVD	3.4
SLIDE 5: Nature and nurture
SLIDE 6: Myths about the human brain
SLIDE 7: The brain hierarchy
SLIDE 8: Areas of the brain 1
SLIDE 9: Areas of the brain 2
SLIDE 10: Brain development and emotional health: birth to three years
SLIDE 11: Brain development and emotional health: three years to adolescence
SLIDE 12: The use-dependent brain
SLIDE 13: Stress and neglect
SLIDE 14: Why intervene early?
SLIDE 15: Memory and trauma
SLIDE 16: Brain development and children's mental health
Activity: Infant mental health – primitive brain	3.15
Ryan's Story (case study)	3.19

Session 4 The model: what is containment?	4.1
SLIDE 17: The Solihull Approach Model
SLIDE 18: Definition of containment
SLIDE 19: Physical and emotional containment
Activity: What is helpful and what is unhelpful	4.5
Activity: Georgie's story (case study)	4.13
Optional activity: Jade's story (case study)	4.14
Activity: Miss Peters (case study)	4.14
Handout: How containment works	4.21
Session 5 What is reciprocity?	5.1
SLIDE 20: The Solihull Approach Model
SLIDE 21: Definition of reciprocity
SLIDE 22: The Dance of Reciprocity
Activity: Video/DVD 'First Years Last Forever'	5.6
Activity: Reciprocity: parent-child	5.9
Activity: Greg's story (case study)	5.9
Activity: Mrs Kaur (case study), Mrs Tan (case study)	5.10
Session 6 The role of behaviour management	6.1
SLIDE 23: The Solihull Approach Model
SLIDE 24: Definition of behaviour management
Activity: Mrs Perry (case study), Behaviour management – postnatal depression (case study)	6.5
Session 7 Introduction to the Solihull Approach Resource	7.1
Activity: Getting to know the Solihull Approach Resource	7.3
Session 8 Putting theory into practice	8.1
Activity: Notes on observation exercise	8.2
Activity: Putting theory into practice with individual families	8.2
Handout: Notes on observation exercise	8.3
Day 2
Session 9 Feedback on observations and case studies	9.1
Activity: Megan: theory into practice (case study)	9.4
Session 10 More about children's emotional development	10.1
Activity: Video/DVD of Conor	10.3
Session 11 Evaluation and research into the use of the Solihull Approach	11.1
SLIDE 25: Evaluation of changes in health visitors' practice
SLIDE 26: Evaluation of changes in health visitors' practice: results

SLIDE 27: Effectiveness of intervention to containment and infant problem outcome
SLIDE 28: Effectiveness of intervention to containment and infant problem outcome: results
SLIDE 29: Health visitors' experience of using the Solihull Approach
SLIDE 30: Early intervention
SLIDE 31: A pilot evaluation study of the Solihull Approach
SLIDE 32: Solihull Approach Parenting Group
Session 12 Levels of intervention: scope for practice	12.1
Activity A Parts 1 and 2: Applying the Solihull Approach to your practice	12.3
Optional activity A Part 3: Relating the Solihull Approach model to the public health continuum	12.4
SLIDE 33: Public health improvements through the Solihull Approach
SLIDE 34: Levels of intervention chart: first five years
SLIDE 35: Levels of intervention chart: school years
Activity B: Working with individual clients	12.9
Handout: Public health continuum	12.11
Handout: Public health improvements through the Solihull Approach	12.13
Session 13 Implementing the Solihull Approach: how to take it forward	13.1
Activity: Ghosts from the Nursery quote	13.2
Activity: Implementing the Solihull Approach	13.2
Handout: Ghosts from the Nursery quote	13.5
Session 14 What next: discussion, reflection and evaluation	14.1
Certificate of completion
Course evaluation	14.7
References and bibliography	14.9

Offprints

Balbernie, R. (1999) Infant mental health, YoungMinds Magazine, 39, 17-18.

Douglas, H. and Ginty, M. (2001) The Solihull Approach: changes in health visiting practice, Community Practitioner, 74, 6, 222-224.

Winkley, L. (1999) Neural pathways and the development of the brain, Primary Practice, 20, 30-35.

All OHP masters